

FREE NARCAN TRAINING

(With a Discussion on Tackling the County's Opioid Crisis)

Wednesday, October 12

7:00-8:30 PM

Doylestown Administration Building
(425 Wells Rd, Doylestown, PA 18901)

The Bucks County Association of Township Officials (BCATO), in partnership with the Bucks County Drug and Alcohol Commission and Doylestown Township, is hosting a free event for residents interested in learning more about the opioid crisis in the county and receiving Narcan training -- Narcan is a prescription medicine that blocks the effects of opioids and reverses an overdose.

Opioid Panel: Matthew Weintraub, Bucks County District Attorney; Diane Rosati, Executive Director of the Bucks County Drug and Alcohol Commission; and Barbara Lyons, Chairman of the Doylestown Township Board of Supervisors

Narcan Training: David Fialko will be providing training. He is an internationally-certified prevention specialist with 14 years of experience working in the drug and alcohol field and oversees the distribution of Narcan and facilitates trainings for participating Bucks County Police Departments.
